EDITOR'S LETTER

It seems odd to recap on the year this early, but since this is the last issue of 1991, we feel like taking a look back at what has happened to CGS this year.

The Society has had an enormous growth that is very exiting and challenging for all of us. We wish we had more of you close by to help more with the work.

The members that have contributed articles for REVISTA are very much appreciated and we encourage all to do this. If writing an article is something more than you want to tackle, then keep us in mind if you see an article of genealogical interest in a old book or magazine. Please let us know about it, or better yet send us a copy of the article and we will consider it for publication.

Next year, 1992, promises much in the way of interest in the Americas and its history. We hope to be able to take advantage of the information that will be published and rediscovered. We also hope that it will be a year of new horizons for the history and genealogy of Cuba.

Patriotic Gestures Which Contributed to the Formation of the Cuban Nationality.

By Elena Jardines de Peláez

During the early part of the XVII century, Captain Miguel de la Cuevas and his wife, Mariana Velarde y Bustamante, settled in Santiago de Cuba from Viernoles, Burgos, Spain.

His son, Miguel de las Cuevas y Velarde, was Alderman, Ensign and Provincial Mayor of the Santa Hermandad de Santiago de Cuba. He married in 1708 to Ursula de Paz y Duque de Estrada.

Their son, Miguel de las Cuevas y Paz, who followed the same political steps as his father, married María Guadalupe de Duque de Estrada y Moxena in 1731.

Their son, Mateo de las Cuevas y Duque de Estrada married Juana Manuela Betancourt y Angulo in 1752. Their daughter, María Concepción de las Cuevas y Betancourt, married with the Royal Colonel Juan José Colás y Catani in 1778. The Colonel was also Brigadier, Judge and Representative to the Royal Court (Diputado de la Corte).

During the early part of the XVII century the Colás family resided in Aragón, from where they moved to Barcelona, and later, in the middle part of the century, they established themselves in Santiago de Cuba. According to the Cronicas Santiagueras, During 1797, Juan José Colás y Catani proved his nobility status. The couple had two children, Antonio and Francisco Xavier. The later married Ana María Fernández de Granda y Limonta in 1811. They had eight children, all very involved with the Cuban nationality issue.

Manuel Colás y Fernández de Granda married Isabel Jústiz López del Castillo. He was President of the Excelentisima Diputación Provincial and received the High Honor of the Cruz de Caballero de la Real Orden Americana de Isabel la Católica.

María Rafaela Colás y Fernández de Granda married Eduardo del Marmol Ballagas.

Joaquin Colás y Fernández de Granda married Matilde Elena Barragán del Marmol. These were my great grandparents. The Marmol family were holders of an illustrious patriotic last name.

Juan José Colás y Fernández de Granda married María Vaillant y Tellez-Girón, a member of the house of the Marquis of Calendaria de Yarayabo.

According to Cronicas de Santiago de Cuba in May 1871, Colonel Cañizal, of the Spanish Army, took residence in El Cobre. He formed a military commission to rule over certain crimes against the Spanish government, terrorizing the population. His command started executing four people, and continued the killing for several days. He also imprisoned Juan José Colás and his brothers-in-law Andres Mariano and Manuel Vaillant. There were over 150 people incarcerated, from landowners to farmer, Cubans and foreigners. Don Juan José Colás, the wealthy owner of the sugar mill La Victoria, was found dead in the cell where he had been held incommunicated.

Thanks to the intervention of the French Consul M. Cuverville, more executions were not permitted unless decreed by the General Captaincy. Colonel Martinez Campos examined the cases, found them without merit and the men were set free on September 7, 1851.

It has been told that in El Cobre the prisoners were made to lay down on the ground together or in isolation, with very little food or none at all. Those were not wealthy were tortured so they would make statements against the owners of property. This was done in order to obtain a ransom in exchange for the liberty of the wealthy prisoners. It is known that the liberty of Juan José Colás had a price of $30,000.00

The death of Juan José Colás cause grief among all who knew him. He was an honorable and respected person in that city of El Cobre. He was a very well educated person, that held an important economic position in the town.

The story about the last hours of Don Juan José Colás was that the guards put him in stocks and threw him to the ground, strangling him instantaneously. The authorities sent two doctor to examine the body, to calm down the outrage that the incident caused among the Cuban people that followed with interest the so called "Events in El Cobre."

In September on 1871 the military commission met to determine if Rafael Palacio Colás, together with his wife and daughter, were guilty of treason. They had been accused of keeping in their estate, El Palomar, ammunition and goods for the rebels. Rafael Palacio Colás was found guilty, his wife and daughter were set free.

In 1878 a group of young men were arrested and taken to prison, among them was Antonio Colás. Allegedly, these young men were thought to have been holding meetings to talk against the government.

Risking everything for their nationalistic ideas, the Colás family suffered economic losses, like the embargo of their sugar mills Santa Isabel and the loss of La Victoria and La Santísima Trinidad. They also suffered physical and emotional losses like prison and death.

My great grandparents, Joaquin Colás y Fernández de Granda and Matilde Elena Barragán y del Marmol, had a daughter, Josefa Tomasa del Carmen Colás Barragán, who married in 1880 to Santiago Jardines Infante, who became my grandparents. Cuban descendants for many generations, they were owners of the latifundio called Las Calabazas, one of the biggest estates in the province of Oriente.

According to Cronicas de Santiago de Cuba, in 1814 the Jardines family founded the town of Sagua de Tánamo,...but that is another story.

José Estaban Jardines y Colás, their son, married in 1921 to Pilar

Luisa Motito de Arcos Gonzáles de La, who was born in Baracoa from Spanish parents. These were my parents.

THE OLD CITY OF LA HABANA

Extracted from

"Lo Que Fuimos Y Lo Que Somos"

REVISTA BIMESTRE CUBANA
SOCIEDAD DE AMIGOS DEL PAIS
Volume VII, 1912

The Society of Friends of the Country, an organization of businessmen founded in 1792, published the magazine called REVISTA BIMESTRE CUBANA (Cuban Bimonthly Magazine). The magazine contained historical articles, as well as others of economic nature.

In 1912, the issue of Nov-Dec included this article, which contained a detailed narrative of the land grants and land sales done by individuals and families during the XVIII and XIX centuries, in the city of Havana and its immediate surroundings. In this narrative it is mentioned the names of relatives, sometimes even dates of death or birth, and innumerable anecdotes about places and persons that contributed to the history of Havana.

We want to put this information at the reach of our members, but because of the length of the article (111 pages) and the old spanish used in its narrative, we found it to be more efficient to extract the names of the individuals mentioned and to make a note of the type of information that can be found about each of them.

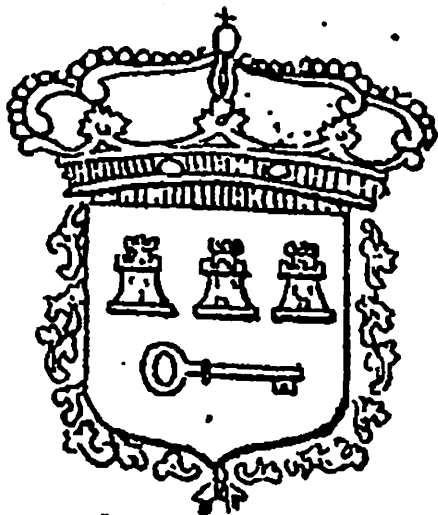

The following index of names will list the last name, the first name, the title (if any) of the person mentioned in the article and a series of numbers, which indicate the information to be found about that person, as follows:

- 1) Dates of birth, death, etc.
- 2) Land ownership information.
- 3) Name of family members.

- 4) Anecdotes about the person or property.
- 5) Street named after the person.
- 6) Information about the house they owned.
- 7) Information about their job, or accomplishments.

If you find a name for which you want to have the information in detail, please write to us and we will send you a copy of the pages in which that name appears for a nominal fee of 10¢ per copied page. The content of the pages will be translated for you if you request it.

Parish Register of Cardenas, Matanzas, Cuba
Extractions from Volumes 3 - 5

The extractions in this listing were made by Rafael Nieto y Cortadella, an associate of Francisco Xavier de Santa Cruz in his endeavor of gathering information for his work Familias Cubanas.

The purpose of taking these notes was to supplement the histories of the families that had branches in Cardenas. As Rafael Nieto explains at the beginning of his notes the city of Cardenas was first named San Cipriano de Guamacaro; later it was called Guamacaro-Limonar and then Guamacaro-Cárdenas. Only at the middle of the nineteenth century did the city take the name of Cárdenas.

These extractions are from books number 3, 4 and 5 only, which have entries from the nineteenth and twentieth century. Books 1 and 2 were not available at the time because they were being rebound and repaired.

The information contained in the following list has the same format as previously used. To recap: The surname and given name are found first, followed by the sex of the individual, the date of the ordinance, a letter indicating whether the individual listed is the one being married (M), or is associated genealogically (G); this G follows the names of parents or other spouses. The letter (B) reference to a baptism and the letter (D) refers to the death of the individual. The reference numbers finish out the line. The numbers at the very end refer to the page and entry number of the original transcription. These are helpful in looking at the individuals identified in a given entry and may also be used for further reference in correspondence with CGS to get a printout of the entry or in using the manuscript found at the Hialeah Family History Library.

Parish Register of El Sagrario, Camaguey, Cuba

Marriages 1811-1831

This listing consists of the end of Volume 5 and all of Volume 6 of marriages covering the years 1811 to 1831, as it appears in the original transcriptions, written by Francisco Xavier de Santa Cruz and his associates, during the 1930s and 1940s.

This list starts with the last pages of Volume 5, which was published in the July 1991 issue of REVISTA and continues with Volume 6 in its entirety. The REVISTA of CGS, Volumes 1:3, 1:4, 2:1, 4:1, and 4:3 contain the first parts of this series of entries from El Sagrario.

The information contained in the following list has the same format as previously used. To recap: The surname and given name are found first, followed by the sex of the individual, the date of the marriage, a column indicating whether the individual listed is the one being married (M), or is associated genealogically (G); this G follows the names of parents or other spouses. The reference numbers finish out the line. The numbers at the very end refer to the page and entry number of the original transcriptions. These are helpful in looking at all the individuals identified in a given entry and also may be used for further reference in correspondence with CGS to get a copy of the entry or in using the manuscripts found at the Hialeah Family History Library.
