EDITOR'S LETTER

It is with deep sorrow that we let you know of the death of one of Cuba's most brilliant sons, Levi Marrero: teacher, historian, geographer and economist, pass away on March 10, 1995 at age 83.

He honored our society with his membership and used the REVISTA to study the surnames of Cuba for his latest book.

Levi Marrero was born in Santa Clara, Las Villas, Cuba on July 16, 1911 to a modest family that was proud to finance his studies with their loving efforts.

He was a journalist for El País and El Mundo, two newspaper of La Habana, during the decade of 1930. He wrote many books about Cuba's history and geography. In 1950 he published Geografía de Cuba, and in 1956 he published Historia Económica de Cuba. His most massive work was Cuba: Economía y Sociedad, which he wrote in exile. This work of 15 volumes took him 25 years of research in the archives of Madrid, Puerto Rico, London, New York and Sevilla.

Because of the depth of his work, he has been called the third discoverer of Cuba, after Columbus and Humboldt.

As a Cuban or a person interested in the history of Cuba, we will always be indebted to Levi Marrero for his priceless contribution to the preservation of Cuban history in writing.

HAVANA

Parish Register of the Parishes of Santo Cristo, Cathedral, Espíritu Santo, Jesús del Monte,
Habana, and Bejucal, Guanabacoa and Quivicán, Habana, Cuba

Births, Marriages, and Death.
1709 to 1881

The transcriptions from the different Parishes of La Habana, Bejucal and Guanabacoa are of selected families that were being studied at the time by Francisco Xavier de Santa Cruz and his associates. The extractions cover the years 1709 to 1881.

The list was kept in the original order to keep the parishes together. The source number can help you determine the church the entry belongs to as follows: 060201 = Cathedral; 060206 = Jesús del Monte; 060209 = Santo Cristo; 060211 = Espíritu Santo; 060212 = Bejucal; 060202 = Guanabacoa; 060213 = Quivicán.

The information contained in the following listing has the same format as previously used. To recap: The surname and given name are found first, followed by the sex of the individual, the date of the marriage, a letter indicating whether the individual listed is the one being married (M), or is associated genealogically (G); this G follows the names of parents or other spouses and witnesses, if any. The numbers at the very end refer to the page and entry number of the original transcription. These are helpful in looking at the individuals identified in a given entry and may also be used for further reference in corresponding with CGS to get a printout of the entry as it appears in the original transcription.
