EDITOR'S LETTER

A new year is upon us and the renewed challenge of REVISTA publication.

I would like to express my appreciation to Jose A. Tavel, for his generous assistance in typing the list of Testament of Camagüey It has help tremendously to be able to publish the last two issues.

I encourage all the members to publish their family histories, no matter how dull you think it might be, it is always interesting to some one. The added benefit is to find relatives that you never even knew existed.

I published the descendant of you of my great-grand fathers a while back and just for been in the index I found the long lost branch of the family that had moved to Washington DC in the 1899.

In genealogy it always pay to share the knowledge we have about our ancestors.

City of Matanzas - 1853

Notes about the Founding of the City of Matanzas

Extracted from documents in the Archivo Nacional de Cuba

Translation by Mayra Sanchez-Johnson.

The city of San Carlos y San Severino de Matanzas, capital of the province of the same name, is located on the north coast of Cuba, between the rivers of San Juan and Yumuri, and next to the bay that has the same name. That bay was frequently visited by the pirates of the XVI and XVII century.

The founding of Matanzas, was ordered by the Royal Decree of Carlos II. Jacobo Pezuela, a writer of the times, says: "Because of its short distance from the capital and the great bay near by, and the fact that there were already parcels given to the cattle ranchers, the place of Matanzas was well suited to become a town. Captain Don Severino de Manzaneda obtained the decree on September 25, 1690 with the aid of the Bishop of Compostela. But the founding did not take place until the 10th of October of 1693 with the assistance of the government leaders of La Habana who aided in tracing the streets, plazas and lots that were to occupy the church, the customs building and the public offices building in the land that is defined by the shore, and the rivers San Juan and Yumuri. The Bishop of Compostela set the first brick in place for the construction of the church on October 11, 1693 and 30 lots were given to the founding families, most of them originally from Canary Islands."
These thirty families were given 50 pesos for their expenses and they were except of taxes for 20 years. They were ordered to establish a civil guard to protect themselves and they were to build their own houses and clear their own land.

Don Severino de Manzaneda y Salinas, established the following “hatos” in the six league that surrounded the town: Yumuri, Corral Nuevo, Caunabaco, Corral de Matanzas, San Agustín, Sitio Aguacate, La Magdalena, San Francisco, Santa Ana, Las Moscas, La Sabanilla, Las Sidras, San Pedro, Limones Chicos, Cahovas, Laguna de Palos, y Canimar, with the sugar mills that is in it. The inhabitants of these “hatos” or villages were obligated to bring to the town of Matanzas all their produce to be sold to the inhabitant of the town and to pay the tax for their profits. The property taxes were five pesos per year for the land occupied in the “hatos”. The taxes were to be used for the fortification of the bay and the towns, the construction of the Castillo del Puerto and the expenses of the town government. Don Severino de Manzaneda was not very agreeable to the exception that was given to the first thirty families, but he did not have the authority to veto the Royal order, so he asked for a reversal from the king.

The eleventh of October of 1693 the Bishop of Compostela, blessed the parcel of land where the church was to be built, and celebrated the first mass. The Plaza de Armas was drown in October and the civil laws were read and accepted. On the fourteenth of that month he set another stone for the chapel of San Sebastiano near the river Yumuri. That same day the map of the town of Matanzas and its surrounding was presented to Don Severino de Manzaneda.

On the twenty second of October of 1693, Juan de Uribe Ozeta, scribe and Alférez of the town of Matanzas executed the lottery of the plots of land to be given to the founding families and these were the results:
"The block, on the street that comes out of the Plaza de Armas, to the west, next to the plot that is set aside for the Customs House, with thirty yards of front and forty of depths was given by lottery to Jacinto Gonzales, who was absent and in his name was Miguel Alonso de Armas; the plot next to it was for Angel Perez with the same front and depth; the last plot of this street across from the River Matanzas, was for Diego Garcia Oramas, and the next plot to Miguel Peres Mallea.

"The plot that is next to the Customs house to Luis Peres with thirty yards of depth each of these plots. On the block that was at the right hand of this block the plot next to the house of the Mayor or Judge, was given to Alferez Juan Gonzalez Vello.

"The next to Blasina de Goya.

"And the last one to Alferez Juan Gonzales Vello, in behalf of Juan Gonzales Vello his son, absent, with thirty yards of front, to the street, and forty of depths, the last one making a corner with the street that is set aside for the Parish Church.

"The next in said street to Sevastian Rodrigues.

"The next plot to Juan Domingues.

"And the last plot that is next to the plot set aside for the houses of the Mayor to Estevan de Torres, with thirty yards of front and each plot to the street that comes to the Plaza de Armas on the north of the parish church.

"In the block that is to the north of the church, in the corner that is to the side of the river Yumuri, to Matias Laguna, in front of the marshes of the mentioned river, with sixty yards to the street, ten to the plaza and forty to the marsh.
“Next to it the plot to Juan Riberos, with fifty yards of front and to the marsh in a triangle.

“And the next one to Domingo Alfonso Ruis, with thirty yards of front and making a corner to the street that is across the back of the church.

“And the other corner to Domingo Rodrigues, and in the corner that is in front of the river Matanzas, and to the plot of the church, to Pedro Fernandez Guerrero, at the corner of the street that is north of the back of the church, that goes from the east to the west of the plaza.

“And the next one to Alferez Andres Dias Baltazar.

“And the next one to Simon Dias.

“And the next one to Miguel Alfonzo de Armas, making a corner to the church and the Plaza that is in front

“And the other corner of the river Matanzas to Gaspar de los Reyes

“And the next one to Julian Dias Gonzalez

“And the one in this side to Martin Ximenez with thirty yards of front and forty of depths each, in the plot that was given by lottery

In the block that is in front of the marsh that go to the river Yumuri, and the Church, was given to Sargent Simon Gonzalez, the plot that makes a corner with the church to Andres Hernandez Baroso.

“And the next to Pedro Hernandez,

“And the next in the corner to Balthazar Gonzales
"And in the next corner to the side of the marsh to Pedro Peres

" And the next to Urvano Peres.

"And the next to Salvador Alvares

"And the corner to Diego Gonzales

"In the corner of the church and plaza that is a street to the marsh of Yumuri, and to the east was given to Diego Felipe de Bossa, and with this I gave the possession to each one of them, of the plot that was their lottery, and they walked to them and took passive possession of their lot and to make it legal I sign it—Juan de Uribe Ozeta."

Due to the fact that there were not enough plots of land in the one side of the river Matanzas, the government sent Juan de Uribe to mark the other side of the river and divide it into plots to be given. On the 27th of October they measured 33 caballerias¹ in total arriving close to the River San Juan.

"On the thirtieth of October of 1693, being present the Captain Diego Mendes de Leon and Juan Gonzalez Vello, and the Sargent of the Militia of the town, and all the heads of families, after being called by the Cry of War, we had another lottery for the distribution of the plots of land just measured and divided into 3 caballerias each, according to the Law of the Indies, that were given as follows: the land measured by the sugar mill to Estevan de Torres,
